GHS principal takes top job for Clare Public Schools

After nearly two decades serving and educating students in the Crawford AuSable School District, Grayling High School Principal Daniel Pummell is taking the next step up the career ladder.

Pummell will become the superintendent for the Clare Public Schools District on July 1.

In the fall, Pummell will complete her specialist degree in educational leadership through Grand Valley State University. Coming to the end of the studies prompted Pummell to determine if she would move on to become a program curriculum director or superintendent.

Earlier this year, with the support of her family, she locked in her decision and started applying for superintendent jobs in areas that geographically fit her family's needs and were suitable for their continued education. Pg. 3

'100 years of health care'

Mercy Hospital Grayling begins celebrations for centennial

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

Dozens of community members, the Sisters of Mercy and health care officials celebrated the 100th anniversary of Mercy Hospital Grayling on Monday.

Initial health care in Grayling was provided above the Mac and Gidley's Drug Store during the lumbering era. Lumber baron Rasums Hanson convened a committee of lumberman and clergy to build a hospital as a legacy to the industry in 1910. A groundbreaking ceremony for the hospital took place on a five-acre site located on North McClellan Street in August 1910. Hanson and Oscar Palmer, publisher of the Crawford County Avalanche, donated the property.

In April 1911, the 20-bed hospital was completed at a cost of $25,000, said Stephanie Reimer-Matuzak, the CEO of Mercy Hospital Grayling.

The intention of the committee was to turn the hospital over to the Sisters of Mercy, which had been successful in running other hospitals across the world. The deed for the property was transferred and the hospital was dedicated on May 16, 1911.

The Sisters of Mercy provided health care to sick and wounded while living and working in bleak conditions throughout the Great Depression and World War II. Nursing programs were started as those who graduated and worked at the hospital earned $4 a week, received free meals and uniforms.

Grayling Farm Market set for spring opening

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

It's time to round up your recipes and get your grocery lists ready for fresh fruits and vegetables - the City of Grayling's Farm Market is opening for the season next week.

The Grayling Farm Market will open to offer a bounty of spring produce, plants and flowers on Thursday, May 26.

The Grayling Farm Market is moving from its location at the Michigan State Police Forensics Lab across the road to the AuSable River City Park. Fall farm market sales were held in the park last year and praise from citizens prompted in the move.

"The move was based on a lot of the community saying we like it down here - this is where it belongs," said Beth Hubbard, the farm market manager for the City of Grayling.

The farm market hours will also extend from 2 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. to accommodate customers getting out of work late and those with family activities.

Eventually, Hubbard would like the farm market to stay open until 7 p.m.

"We're closing at 6:30 p.m. at this point," she said. "I went halfway with the vendors."

The farm market will also host demonstrations in the city's Nature Center on bread making, mozzarella cheese making and a registered dietician will speak about healthy eating. Chefs will also demonstrate their talent and quinine on a weekly or bi-weekly basis. The demonstrations will be announced as the schedule is firmed up, Hubbard said.

A sign, directing people to the market, will have a new motto, which is: "For a

Mercy Hospital Graying begins celebrations for centennial

While the Sisters of Mercy were still involved in direct patient care, the nurses that graduated picked up much of the work load so the Sisters could concentrate on administrative duties.

In 1949, the Michigan State Fire Marshall declared the wooden structure hospital to be a fire hazard. By 1953, the community raised $53,000 for a new hospital. The hospital, overlooking the AuSable River on Michigan Avenue, was completed in 1958 with 50 patient beds.

In 1970, the hospital completed construction for Mercy Manor to provide long-term and respite care for the elderly.

Mercy Hospital Graying added 90-acute care beds and 40 long-term care beds with a $10 million project in 1980.

Outpatient clinics have been established in Graying, Roscommon and Prudenville.

The hospital and the Sisters of Mercy have a presence outside of its main campus at the Riverhouse Shelter, a domestic violence shelter for battered woman and children, and the AuSable Free Clinic, which provides health care for uninsured and underinsured citizens in the region.

"The mission of Sisters of Mercy has been alive for 100 years and remains vibrant today," Reimer-Matuzak said.

In 2005, a five-year, $15 million state of the art project started to update the hospital's surgical suites, ambulatory surgery care suites, maternal and newborn unit and pharmacy was finished. In 2006, the hospital's high tech emergency room expansion was completed with a $2.3 million commitment for the community.

"As we begin our 100 years celebration, I stand proud to tell you that we remember our heritage and we promise to stay true to it while we steward our precious resources," Reimer-Matuzak said.

Rick O'Connell, COO of Trinity Health Hospital Networks, which is the parent company for Mercy Hospital Graying, noted that 55,000 needy people received $7.5 million in service from Mercy Hospital Graying in 2010.

O'Connell also acknowledged the Hospital for establishing its Senior ER, which provides enhanced communication and outpatient care to senior citizens, earlier this month.

"You've created an atmosphere that will provide an invaluable service to some of our most vulnerable patients," O'Connell said.

Sister Maureen Mulrone, a member of the Mercy Hospital Board of Directors, said Catherine McAuley would be proud of the hospital's accomplishments. McAuley founded the Sisters of Mercy in Ireland.

"I think she would say: Hurrah for centennials, because they make the old feel young and make us all feel hopeful," she said.

Ed Ness, president of Munson Healthcare and the Munson Medical Center in Traverse City, said there are a lot of changes ahead as health care remains on the front burner. Mercy Hospital Graying and the Munson Medical Center began a partnership in 1999.

"There are a lot of things that have changed in 100 years of health care," Ness said. "A hospital building was built for $25,000 and today, I don't know if we could buy a hospital bed now for $25,000."

Ness congratulated Mercy Hospital Graying for improving its trauma care and said the hospital will play a greater role in the region as over a dozen counties are left without OB care for pregnant women and newborns.

"It's going to be even more important that we work together," Ness said.

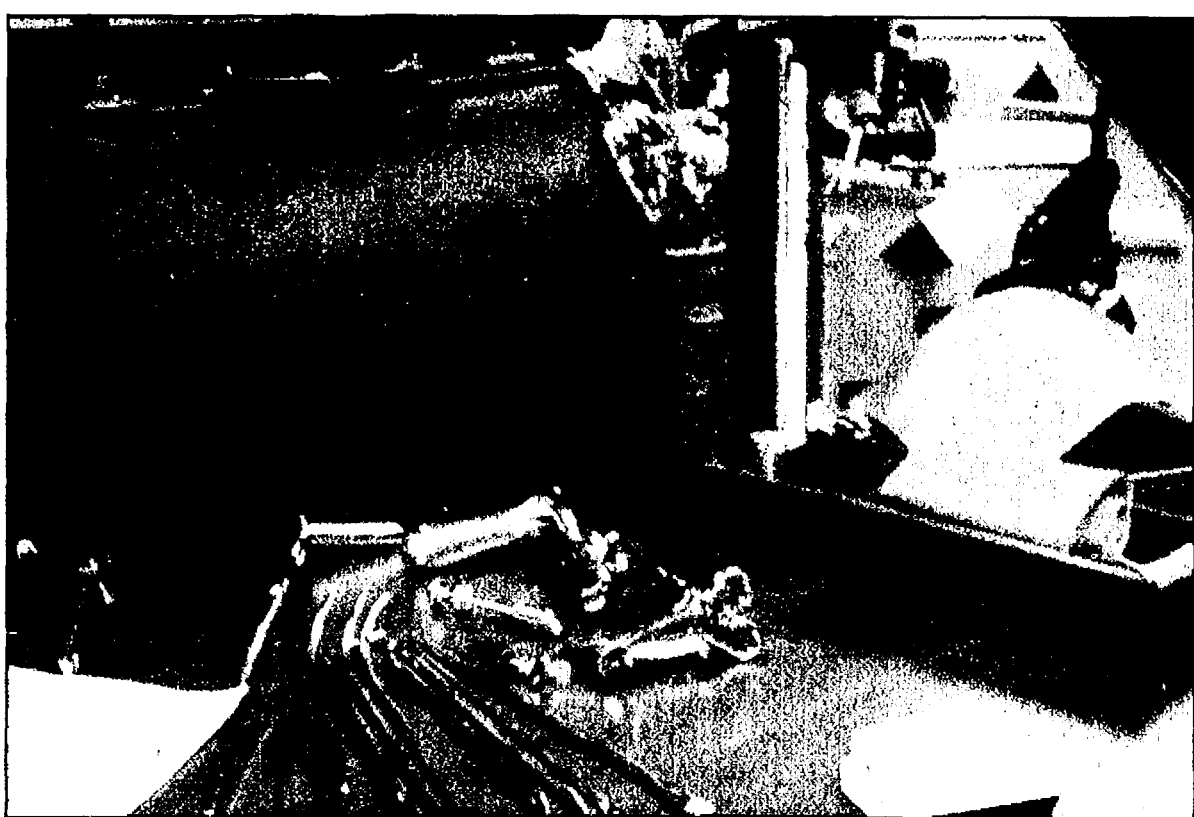

Rev. Bernard A. Hebda,

the Bishop for the Diocese of Gaylord, praised hospital employees for bearing the pain and suffering for patients while giving them comfort and strength as they continue to serve the community for the next 100 years.

"It's certainly a very challenging time for those of you who are in health care," said Hebda, who blessed the hospital at the ceremony. "We can really only commend that vision of perseverance and that commitment to health care, respecting that is the call that has been given to you by Christ to be his hands and his healing touch."

Sister Mary Generose, who worked at the Hospital from 1980 to 1990, met one of the patients she served while working in the emergency room at the ceremony.

"It's wonderful, I'm glad they're making a note of the anniversary and I'm glad we had such a great turnout," said Generose, who has been with the Sisters of Mercy for 67 years. "It was wonderful and I met some nurses I worked with and I'm hoping to meet some of the doctors and patients."

Above, artifacts from the hospital were borrowed from the Crawford County Historical Museum for visitors to view at the centennial celebration.

GHS principal takes top job for Clare Public Schools

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

After nearly two decades serving and educating students in the Crawford AuSable School District, Grayling High School Principal Doniel Pummell is taking the next step up the career ladder.

Pummell will become the superintendent for the Clare Public Schools District on July 1.

In the fall, Pummell will complete her specialist degree in educational leadership through Grand Valley State University. Coming to the end of the studies prompted Pummell to determine if she would move on to become a program curriculum director or superintendent.

Earlier this year, with the support of her family, she locked in her decision and started applying for superintendent jobs in areas that geographically fit her family's needs and were suitable for their continued education.

"The Crawford AuSable School District is a very solid, strong district and I didn't want to take my family to a school district that wasn't equally as strong," Pummell said.

After graduating from Central Michigan University 19 years ago, Pummell was hired by retired Grayling Middle School Principal Mike Branch to be a teacher. She first taught math and science, then expanded into teaching English and reading.

During her tenure with the district, Pummell served as a Grayling Middle School assistant principal for two years, principal for four years and began serving as the Grayling High School principal in 2003.

Pummell also coached seventh and eighth grade girls' basketball, Grayling Middle School track and Grayling High School track and cross-country. She was on the team of school officials that researched the construction of Ferguson Field, before the track was merely a small trail around the football field.

Pummell and children Tara, 14, Holly, 12, and Ryan, 11, will relocate to Clare County, which is mainly a farming community where they can continue to train and raise their horses. Her husband, Doug Pummell, a Grayling High School science teacher and former athletic director, may commute to Grayling until he can find another teaching job.

"To do a good job as a superintendent there - I need to invest in that community," Pummell said. "It's very important."

Like the Crawford AuSable School District, Clare Public Schools has a high rate for student achievement. The district, however, does not face declining enrollment. All schools in the state face funding issues as state lawmakers deal with the budget deficit in Michigan.

Donna Boughner, the Grayling High School assistant principal and dean of students, will become the principal. The school district will post the job opening for the assistant principal's position soon.

"I am very excited for Doniel as she moves forward to be able to take on a superintendency," said Crawford AuSable School District Superintendent Joe Powers. "It's been a career goal of her's and Clare Public Schools are very fortunate to have a quality professional and quality person for their students."

"Although I'm very sorry to see her leave after many dedicated and successful years with the Crawford AuSable School District, I'm excited for her as she embarks on a new and exciting challenge," Powers added.

Pummell said it will be bittersweet to leave Grayling, but Clare is close enough that her family will look forward to visiting friends and attending sporting events as much as possible.

"I am very excited and I am very proud to be in this leadership position," she said. "It's been a great opportunity here in Grayling for 19 years and I just want to finish strong here and start strong there."

Mercy to participate in a region-wide IED exercise

In a partnered effort between the Region 7 Homeland Security Planning Board and the Region 7 Medical Disaster Preparedness Network, Mercy Hospital Grayling is participating a region-wide Improvised Explosive Device (IED) exercise involving coordination of 17 County Emergency Operation Centers (EOC), three Tribal EOCs, and 12 hospitals.

The full-scale exercise is being held in Gaylord, with EOCs and additional hospitals throughout the region each participating at the drill, functional, or full-scale levels.

The exercise is planned to quickly exceed hospital resources to assess how well the hospital operates on a regional level with communication and response.

Region 7 will be the first one in the State of Michigan to run this federally mandated exercise.

"Region 7 is ahead of what the federal government had planned for the states as far as a timeline. Mercy Hospital Grayling will be part of an exercise that really is the first of its kind in Michigan," states Gary Rapelje, RRT, Mercy Hospital Grayling Regional Exercise Planner.

Recall attempts aimed at Snyder program

IT'S BUDGET time in the Michigan legislature, and the nasty portent of recalls are afloat in the air.

A group called the Committee to Recall Rick Snyder reports petitions are being printed and volunteers are being recruited to get to work in the next week or so on collecting the 800,000-plus signatures needed to put the question before voters in November.

Washtenaw County election officials — in the home county of the subject of the proposed recall — already have approved the particular wording on the recall petitions.

Gov. Snyder says he is not worried.

"I believe I have strong support from the general public and that's continued in a very positive way in respect to all the reinvention projects we've got going," the governor said recently.

Maybe Gov. Snyder should study results of a recent poll on what the public thinks about what he's doing.

TWO MONTHS after Gov. Snyder took office in January, polling showed only 36 percent of the public gave him a negative job rating. As the Snyder program got into the nitty-gritty, things have changed.

Polling by the same firm (Lansing-based EPIC-MRA) a week or so ago pegged the governor's negative job rating at 60 percent, while only 32 percent gave him a positive job rating, and 8 percent stayed undecided.

Public discontent centers on some of the "reinvention projects" Gov. Snyder favors.

For example, his plans to cut public education spending by nearly $470 per student or more evoked a 71 percent negative rating.

His proposal to increase tax burdens on individuals through various means, including taxes on public pension, drew a similar 71 percent negative response.

His keystone program to reduce taxes on business was disfavored by 60 percent. Public rating for what he has touted as the primary goal of a Snyder administration to improve the state economy and create jobs was 62 percent negative.

More than half said Michigan is on the wrong track.

Overall opinions of Gov. Snyder were about even, with 41 percent expressing a favorable opinion, and 43 percent a negative opinion, and the rest undecided.

Obviously Gov. Snyder is an optimist. It would take one to see this public reaction to him and his key objectives and programs eliciting "strong support from the general public ... which continues in a very positive way" about all his "reinvention projects."

* * *

IF EVER TIME is ripe for a recall effort, it's now. Even so, chances of removing Mr. Snyder from office — or even getting the recall question on the ballot — are very thin.

Recallers need 807,000 petition signatures, which is 25 percent of those who voted in the last election for governor, although the Committee to Recall Gov. Snyder says it's seeking more than a million signers to cover any problems that may arise in the verification process.

The task is Herculean, especially with a deadline of August 5 for the recall to appear on the November election.

There appears to be no heavy hitting organization behind the effort, and no deep-pocketed angel or group to finance significant outside help.

* * *

OTHERS ACTIVE in this year's budget process are being targeted, too.

All are Republicans. House Speaker Jase Bolger, and three other legislators: Rep. Al Pscholka of Stevensville and Sens. Howard Walker of Traverse City and John Moolenaar of Midland.

Other targets may arise as the law-making process wears on. Signatures needed in each case reflect the same 25 percent of the last governor election totals in the local district, which means fewer signatures but from a much smaller base, too.

Recalls are rarely successful in Michigan. In 1983, voters incensed by an income tax increase maneuvered by new Democratic Gov. James Blanchard, launched recall drives against Gov. Blanchard and 14 state senators. Two Democratic senators from swing districts lost their seats to Republicans.

Latest recall try was against then House Speaker

Andy Dillon of Redford in 2008. Mr. Dillon beat the recall and also was reelected. He lost a Democratic primary bid for governor in 2010, and was appointed state treasurer by Gov. Snyder.

* * *

NAME CHANGE? — Gov. Snyder has endorsed use of Michigander as the preferred way to identify a citizen of Michigan.

Many local citizens object, including this one. I much prefer Michiganian, which is gender correct and just sounds better.

If the recall effort should somehow succeed, would that make the then-former Gov. Snyder a Michi-goner?

Smoke detectors save lives

Recent news reports have commented on several house fires in Northern Michigan. Some of these fires have been reported to have smoke alarms and some have not.

Smoke detectors save lives. Does your home have smoke detectors and are they in the right place? Contact your local fire department for information or to answer questions on smoke, heat and carbon monoxide alarms.

In addition here is some important information to remember before you buy an alarm.

Always look on the back tag of the alarm to make sure that there is a UL listing on the sticker. Underwriters Laboratories Inc. test, certify and perform quality assessments on products before they are sold to the public to make sure they are safe and effective.

Smoke detectors are required in all homes built after 1996 and are required to be hard wired, with a battery back-up and must be interconnected, which means when one detector goes off they all go off.

Currently there are two types of smoke detectors available to purchase for your home, ionization and photoelectric. For best results you can purchase a detector that has both types of sensors. Ionization detectors are more sensitive at detecting flaming fires such as paper burning or grease fires. Photoelectric detectors are more suited for detecting smoldering fires which produce a greater amount of smoke.

High quality, reliable alarms may be purchased for $8 to $15 depending on the brand and type.

If you have hard wired alarms remember to replace them with an alarm that can be hard wired. Do not be fooled by companies saying one alarm is better than another or will not work in a real fire situation. All UL listed detectors use either ionization or photoelectric technology, or both in the same alarm.

The most important thing to remember is to test your alarm once a month and change your batteries at least once a year.

For more information contact your local fire department: Beaver Creek Township Fire Department at 275-8548; Frederic Township Fire Department at 348-8190; Grayling City and Township Fire Department at 348-6319; Lovells Township Fire Department at 348-9215; or the South Branch Township Fire Department at 275-4779.

Crawford County joins statewide seat belt enforcement

Crawford County Sheriff's Office will continue the spring tradition of seat belt enforcement by taking part in the Click It or Ticket campaign May 23 through June 5.

"Traffic fatalities have risen this year, while seat belt use has dipped slightly," said Sheriff Wakefield. "By continuing to step up seat belt enforcement, we are reminding motorists the easiest way to protect themselves in a crash is by buckling up."

Click It or Ticket is a national mobilization and more than 200 Michigan law enforcement agencies will take to the streets focusing on unbuckled motorists utilizing daytime seat belt enforcement zones and night time roving patrols.

In 2010, more than half of the people who died in traffic crashes in Michigan were not wearing seat belts.

The Click It or Ticket campaign will be supported by new television, radio, cable and internet advertising.

The campaign, as well as the enforcement effort, is paid for with federal traffic safety funds.

Michigan law requires all drivers, front seat passengers and passengers 15 and younger in any position in the vehicle to be buckled up.

Children must be in a car seat or booster seat until they are 8 years old or 4'9" tall. Children must be in a seat until they reach the age requirement or the height requirement, whichever comes first.

Agencies to sign key agreement regarding conservation of Kirtland's warbler

Kirtland Community College and the Kirtland's Warbler Wildlife Festival (KWWF) will host what might turn out to be an historical event Saturday, May 21, when state and federal officials are slated to gather together to sign a memorandum of understanding (MOU) regarding future conservation efforts for the Kirtland's warbler, North America's rarest song bird.

During the annual festival, representatives from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Michigan Department of Natural Resources and the U.S. Forest Service will sign a memorandum of understanding that represents a significant milestone in the conservation of the endangered Kirtland's warbler, according to agency officials.

The signing ceremony will take place at 12:15 p.m. on Saturday in the G.I. Steward Auditorium on Kirtland's main campus near Roscommon.

"Dedicated partners have worked for decades to bring the Kirtland's warbler back from the brink of extinction," said Georgia Parham, an external affairs official for the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service. "Through management of jack pine habitat, cowbird control, public awareness campaigns, research and innovative fieldwork, we are very close to achieving our goals."

The Kirtland's warbler was one of the first species of birds to be placed on the Endangered Species List after the passage of the Endangered Species Act of 1973. The warbler population has been on an upward climb since a low of 167 males were counted in a 1987 census.

"The MOU to be signed is a springboard from which the partners can launch long-term management strategies and is a critical component in the eventual removal of this bird from the list of federally endangered and threatened species," Parham added.

The KWWF is held annually on the third Saturday of each May on Kirtland's Roscommon campus located at 10775 N. St. Helen Road. The purchase of a $6 festival button is required for entry and is good for admittance to all KWWF events, except for the guided tours. Children 14 and under are admitted free.

Crawford County flood risk open house to be held

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), in partnership with the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ), will host a flood risk information open house for Crawford County residents on Thursday, May 26, from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. at Charter Township Hall, 2090 Viking Way, Grayling.

Newly released preliminary digital flood insurance rate maps will be displayed so residents can learn about their risk of flooding and how this will affect their lives and property. Property owners, realtors, lenders and insurance agents may drop-in at any time during the event to speak with DEQ and FEMA representatives and learn more about flood risk and hazard mitigation within their community.

"Everyone is at some risk of flooding," said Andrew

Velasquez III, regional administrator of FEMA Region V in Chicago. "Crawford County residents and business owners need to know what that risk is so they can make informed decisions about their safety and financial investments."

Some residents may be required to purchase flood insurance once local communities adopt these maps. The purchase of flood insurance is required by federally insured or regulated mortgage lenders if a structure is located in a high-risk flood area. Once effective, these maps will be used to determine flood risk, develop mitigation measures, and encourage wise and responsible risk management decision-making that can help reduce the damaging effects of flooding.

For more information, contact John Devine, program specialist, at (312) 408-5567.

The Bible Speaks

Love & Sex

The first law of love fulfilled in Romans 13:8,9 is to protect the moral purity of the home and family as God's basic unit of society. "8Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. 9For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery..." God's commandment to husbands in Ephesians 5:25 is: "25Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it." Fulfilling God's law of love in the marriage keeps it honorable as Hebrews 13:4 says: "4Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge."

God makes it plain that all sex outside of marriage is sin. God uses two terms for sex sin in the Bible, adultery and fornication. Fornication is a broad term which includes adultery in Matthew 5:32; incest in 1 Corinthians 5:1; premarital sex in 1 Corinthians 7:2; and sodomy in Jude 1:7.

Joseph illustrated in Genesis 39:8,9 how love fulfills the law, Thou shalt not commit adultery: "7And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me. 8But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand: 9There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?" First, Joseph's love for his master and his master's trust in him would not allow him to commit adultery. Second, Joseph said adultery would be a wicked sin against God.

Third, adultery or fornication is sin against our own bodies. (1 Corinthians 6:18); it destroys wealth. (Proverbs 6:26); it brings extreme pain. (Proverbs 6:27,28); it destroys innocence. (Proverbs 6:29); it proves lack of understanding or stupidity. (Proverbs 6:32); it destroys reputations. (Proverbs 6:33); it incites jealousy and murder. (Proverbs 6:34,35); and it sends people to the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, or to hell. (Revelation 21:8).

All sex outside of marriage is strictly forbidden for all Christians. "19Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness." (Galatians 5:18). "3For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication." (1 Thessalonians 4:3). "3But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints." (Ephesians 5:3).

Jesus explained how the spirit of love fulfills not only the letter of the law, but also the spirit of the law against adultery in Matthew 5:27,28: "Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery: But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart." Adultery and fornication begin by an attitude of lust within the heart before they are carried out as physical acts. Jesus reminded us in Luke 6:45 that both good and evil are made manifest from the heart by what we say and what we do. We desperately need a spiritual awakening to restore Biblical value to our homes. As our homes go, so goes our nation!!! Pastor "B"

Controlled forest burns to take place by ranger districts

The Huron Shores and Mio Ranger Districts are in the midst of their prescribed fire season. Plans are to burn approximately 4,000 acres during the spring season and continue into the growing season, weather permitting.

Some of these burns will take place after the middle of July. A number of burns have already been completed.

Some of the burns will involve the helicopter for aerial ignition. The helicopter is here until the end of May with a Forest Service Helitack crew from the Mark Twain National Forest in Missouri.

Prescribed burning is an excellent management tool to help manage and maintain a healthy forest. Some burns will be done to reduce hazardous fuels to help protect communities adjacent to national forest lands.

Other burns will be done to enhance cool season grasses, enhance warm season grasses, blueberries and enhance wildlife habitat.

Questions regarding the prescribed burns call the Huron Shores Ranger Station at (989) 739-0728 or the Mio Ranger Station at (989) 826-3252.

Boston Marathoners shift focus to Leaky Wader racing

The 2011 third annual Lovells Township Historical Society Leaky Waders 1K Fun Run was held in conjunction with the opening day of trout fishing season.

A field of nearly 25 racers responded to the starting pistol wearing chest waders and dashed for the finish line at the Lovells Township Hall parking lot. Last year's winning team and favorites for this year's event did not disappoint the fans at the finish line.

The 2011 race marked the third first-place victory for the Long Shaw Marsh Running Club. Chris Hewitt of Bay City and Richard Lindner, a three-time first-place winner, edged out the competition in a dramatic kick to tie for first place. Third place in the men's division went to long-legged David Eberly of Bloomfield Hills. Last place was a repeat of last year with the Headwaters.

Trout Unlimited Chapter well represented with four members crossing the finish line together.

Repeating as first place champ in the women's division was Abigale Ertel. Kristen Kipina of Johannesburg and Kristine Nelson of Ann Arbor finished second and third, respectively.

Lindner held a post race interview at the Lovells Riverside Tavern.

"The club has really kicked up our training efforts this year," he said. "After last year's sweep of the men's division, we knew there'd be a big target on the seat of our waders."

Supporting the young squad throughout the training season was husband and wife coaching team, George Shaw and Bonnie Marsh.

"George and Bonnie provide a platform and support structure that is unparalleled in wader racing," Hewitt said. "It takes a lot of dedication to nurture world-class wader racers, and George and Bonnie are the best."

When asked about plans for next year's race after hearing that race director Pam Rohr planned to bring in more top talent, Shaw indicated that the club has already begun looking for a high altitude training camp.

"We feel that increased altitude, combined with slight modifications to our proprietary race day breakfast - Miss Bonnie's sausage gravy and biscuits - will pay off in 2012 against tougher competition," Shaw said.

Both men's and women's division winners this year, Rick Lindner and Abigale Ertel, competed in and finished the Boston Marathon just two weeks before their victories in the Third Annual Leaky Waders 1K Fun Run in Lovells.

Following the race, an array of prizes, donated by local businesses, was distributed to runners and all were treated to a post training meal of chili dogs and soft drinks.

Richard Lindner and Chris Hewitt battle for first place.

GHS Forensics team competes at state finals

Members of the Grayling High School's (GHS) Forensics Team competed at the state tournament held at Oakland University earlier this month. Students from all over Michigan competed in 14 different public speaking events held over the two-day competition. Three of Grayling's team members advanced to the semi-final round. James Jimenez finished ninth and Cam Wilson finished 10th in broadcasting. Melissa Kocefes finished 11th in sales. "The competition at states is very tough and GHS Forensics made a strong showing," said Coach Chris Lackenbucher. "The competition includes four preliminary rounds with a semi and final round for a total of six rounds over two days. We are proud of our team's accomplishments this year."

Grayling graduate appears on 'O Show' to promote weight loss

Sumner has actually lost more than 210 pounds. Sumner, a 2002 Grayling High School graduate, was active with sports and the Grayling High School Band during her school days.

Sumner first started her exercise and wellness regimen by joining the YMCA in Royal Oak. She then stepped up her efforts, and became a member of Infinite Multi Sport Triathlon Club. A Triathlon is an endurance athletic event consisting of three stages, without a break: swimming, cycling and running.

"Last year, I was in a few triathlons and this year signed to do a few more," she said.

Sumner said she is now hooked on triathlons as part of wellness routine.

"I wanted a challenge," she said. "Everybody in the club seems so full of energy and full of life."

Sumner said the best result of transforming her life is she has a better attitude.

"The biggest thing is I have more energy to do what I want to do," she said.

Sumner was required to send her "fat pants" by Fed Ex prior to the taping of the show. Guests on the show had lost over an accumulated 1,000 pounds.

Although Winfrey's audience seems huge, Sumner said it was a more intimate and quaint environment. Every guest on the show received a Schwinn bike and bike helmet.

The Oprah Winfrey Show had an extra jolt of excitement the day Sumner was in the studios. Winfrey conducted a double taping that day, with President Barack Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama appearing on the show to discuss the presidency and living in the White House.

The added level of security led to all guests being questioned by the Secret Service and their bags that they brought to the show were confiscated until the Obamas had left the studio.

Guests for the first show were taken to the nearby Harpo Offices, the production company for Winfrey's show and the O Store, where they were able to spend more time with Greene.

"They were really nice and accommodating to all of us," Sumner said.

Vikings post six top three finishes at EJ track meet

The Grayling Vikings posted six top three finishes during the East Jordan Invitational on Thursday.

"The boys did an outstanding job, scoring 91.33 points in the large school division of the meet," Coach Dan Helms said. "It was supposed to be thunderstorms, but we got just the opposite with temps reaching past 80 degrees. The boys pushed through and I have to commend them on doing an outstanding job."

Top performers for GHS: Griffin Dean, discus, 102'3", 3rd, shot put, 41'1.75", 2nd; Scott Parkinson, 110 high hurdles, 17.73, 2nd; Nick Dorn, 100m dash, 11.63, 1st, 200m dash, 23.81, 3rd; Cody Myers, 100m dash, 12.04, 3rd; Dorn, Curtis Wilson, Evan Korneli, Myers, 400m relay, 47.71, 3rd.

Wilson took fourth in the 400m dash. The mile relay team of Korneli, Kevin Ningelgen, Jordan Bulmer, and Wilson also placed fourth.

On Saturday, May 14, part of the squad traveled to Alma College for a 24-team invitational "and braved some nasty weather," Coach Helms said. "I am very pleased with the athletes that participated in this meet. The competition was fierce as well as the weather."

"Nick Dorn continues to dominate the competition in the 100 and 200m dashes. He earned a second place finish in the 100m dash with a time of 11.75. His 200m time was 24.47, which earned him a third place medal," Coach Helms said.

"Scott Parkinson also braved the unyielding weather to compete and did an outstanding job in the 110 high hurdles and 300m hurdles. His 110 high hurdle time was 18.74, earning him 10th place. His 300m hurdle time was 47.37, earning him a ninth place spot. Scott has been steadily improving and will be a force to reckon with next year," Coach Helms said.

"Ryan Randall threw the shot put and did an outstanding job, throwing 35'9". He also threw discus 85'2". Ryan has been also getting consistently better and will only get better next year," Coach Helms said. "Ryan Teeple came out and threw shot put very well, throwing 28'2" and the discus 60'4". The throwers had to endure a lot at this meet. It was very chilly and to throw a shot put when it is cold makes it a little more difficult to get a good distance."

"Peyton Zigila, also braved the weather and came out to Alma to compete. He has done an outstanding job and ran some tough races. His time was 11:51.37 in the two-mile run," Coach Helms said. "He has done an outstanding job and I look forward to coaching him next year."

The squad will compete in a regional meet at East Jordan on Saturday, May 21.

Golfers finish 4th in two meets vs. league opponents

The GHS varsity boys golf team finished fourth out of nine during the Grayling Invitational, a nine-team meet hosted by the Grayling Country Club on Thursday, May 5.

The meet featured Alcona and eight schools from the Lake Michigan Conference.

Charlevoix won the event with a team score of 324. Grayling finished at 349.

"Another fourth place finish," Coach Dan DesEnfants said. "We need to get four guys playing well on the same day and we can finish a little higher in the final standings."

Tyler Brigham and Thomas Burrell both shot 83 for the Vikings. Mason Krey posted an 88. Pedro Porta finished at 95. Tyler Summers had a 98 and Eric Rutter shot 110.

"Thomas and Tyler played well and Mason continues to get better. Pedro has a great swing and when he can be a little more consistent he will score as good as anyone on the team," Coach DesEnfants said.

On Monday, May 9, the golf team finished fourth out of eight LMC teams in a nine-hole league meet hosted by Elk Rapids at A-Ga-Ming Golf Resort's Sundance course.

Krey tied for first place in the individual standings with a 41. Brigham posted a 46, Rutter 52, Matt Shelp 64, and Nick Smock 67.

Kalkaska won the meet with a score of 176. Charlevoix took second at 189. Elk Rapids was third with 201 and Grayling placed fourth at 203.

"About where I thought we'd finish," Coach DesEnfants said. "Very tough to beat Charlevoix, and Kalkaska had a great day."

"Mason is really improving and (he's) only a sophomore. Tyler struggled with his drives and that makes the game a challenge when you're not playing down the middle," Coach DesEnfants said.

Mason Krey, left, putts on hole #18 during the Grayling Invitational on May 5. Pedro Porta, right, hits a drive on hole #1 at the Grayling Country Club during a recent meet.
